Senator Burgess moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 92 and 93

insert:

Section 2. Paragraph (c) of subsection (6) of section
112.3144, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

112.3144 Full and public disclosure of financial interests.—

(c)1. Each separate source and amount of income which exceeds $1,000 must be identified. For the purpose of a filer reporting income, the commission shall accept federal income tax returns. If a filer submits a federal income tax return for the purpose of reporting income, he or she must also include all attachments and schedules associated with such federal income tax return.

2. If disclosure of identifying information regarding a source of income or secondary sources of income will violate confidentiality or privilege pursuant to law or rules governing attorneys, a filer who is also an attorney may indicate that he or she has a legal client who meets the disclosure criteria without providing further information about the client. The filer in such circumstance may write "Legal Client" in the disclosure fields without providing further information.

Section 3. Subsection (3) of section 112.3145, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

112.3145 Disclosure of financial interests and clients represented before agencies.—

(3) The statement of financial interests for state officers, specified state employees, local officers, and persons seeking to qualify as candidates for state or local office shall be filed even if the reporting person holds no financial interests requiring disclosure in a particular category, in which case that section of the statement shall be marked "not applicable." Otherwise, the statement of financial interests must include the information under paragraph (a) ~~or paragraph (b).~~ ~~The reporting person must indicate on the statement whether he or she is using the reporting method under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b). Beginning January 1, 2023, only the reporting method specified under paragraph (b) may be used.~~

41 ~~(a)1. All sources of income in excess of 5 percent of the~~ 42 ~~gross income received during the disclosure period by the person~~
43 ~~in his or her own name or by any other person for his or her use~~
44 ~~or benefit, excluding public salary. However, this shall not be~~
45 ~~construed to require disclosure of a business partner's sources~~
46 ~~of income. The person reporting shall list such sources in~~ 47 ~~descending order of value with the largest source first;~~

48 ~~2. All sources of income to a business entity in excess of~~ 49 ~~10 percent of the gross income of a business entity in which the~~ 50 ~~reporting person held a material interest and from which he or~~ 51 ~~she received an amount which was in excess of 10 percent of his~~
52 ~~or her gross income during the disclosure period and which~~ 53 ~~exceeds $1,500. The period for computing the gross income of the~~ 54 ~~business entity is the fiscal year of the business entity which~~
55 ~~ended on, or immediately prior to, the end of the disclosure~~
56 ~~period of the person reporting;~~

57 ~~3. The location or description of real property in this~~
58 ~~state, except for residences and vacation homes, owned directly~~
59 ~~or indirectly by the person reporting, when such person owns in~~ 60 ~~excess of 5 percent of the value of such real property, and a~~
61 ~~general description of any intangible personal property worth in~~ 62 ~~excess of 10 percent of such person's total assets. For the~~
63 ~~purposes of this paragraph, indirect ownership does not include~~
64 ~~ownership by a spouse or minor child; and~~

65 ~~4. Every individual liability that equals more than the~~ 66 ~~reporting person's net worth; or~~

67 ~~(b)1. All sources of gross income in excess of $2,500~~
68 ~~received during the disclosure period by the person in his or~~ 69 ~~her own name or by any other person for his or her use or~~ benefit, excluding public salary. However, this shall not be construed to require disclosure of a business partner's sources of income. The person reporting shall list such sources in descending order of value with the largest source first;

2. All sources of income to a business entity in excess of 10 percent of the gross income of a business entity in which the reporting person held a material interest and from which he or she received gross income exceeding $5,000 during the disclosure period. The period for computing the gross income of the business entity is the fiscal year of the business entity which ended on, or immediately prior to, the end of the disclosure period of the person reporting;

3. The location or description of real property in this state, except for residence and vacation homes, owned directly or indirectly by the person reporting, when such person owns in excess of 5 percent of the value of such real property, and a general description of any intangible personal property worth in excess of $10,000. For the purpose of this paragraph, indirect ownership does not include ownership by a spouse or minor child; and

4. Every liability in excess of $10,000.

(b) If disclosure of identifying information regarding a source of income or secondary sources of income will violate confidentiality or privilege pursuant to law or rules governing attorneys, a filer who is also an attorney may indicate that he or she has a legal client who meets the disclosure criteria without providing further information about the client. The filer in such circumstance may write "Legal Client" in the disclosure fields without providing further information.
